Help us raise awareness of young carers

This year Young Carers Awareness Day, run by the Carers Trust is highlighting the mental health of young carers. You can join in the conversation using #CareForMeToo.

For Young Carers Awareness Day 2019 Bromley Well has put together the following resources for teachers, health and social care professionals, parents and young carers. Please share and spread the word to help us raise awareness of young carers and their needs both locally and nationally.
